LIONS' RODEO-JULY 31-AUG.1

Drayton Valley Lions are working hard to get everything in readiness for the big push on July 31 and August 1st, when Drayton Valley's fourth Annual Rodeo will get underway. This year the big annual event is being sponsored by Drayton Valley's not-too-long organized, but extremely aggressive Lions Club and promises to be bigger and better than ever. It is well to bear in mind that this is no small-time affair, so far as the cowboys and the rodeo stock that has a part in the rodeo; it is all "bigtime" stuff, with most of the same cowboys who take part in the big Stampede staged in Calgary and Edmonton each year taking part. The show is fully C.P.R. approved and the stock is supplied by Harry Vold and is the very best on the line.

This year a few very fine new attractions have been added, the Cutting Horse competition that so many enjoyed last year will be back again this year, there will be a "Girls' Barrel Race" and Russ Greenwood and his trained buffalo team will be here. The very fine 12' Fibre glass boat, complete with 22 H.P. motor, boat trailer and accessories will be drawn for on the last night of the rodeo, at the closing dance. There will be three dances staged during the rodeo, starting on Thursday and continuing each night till the final Saturday night dance when the boat draw will be made and the Beard Contest judging will take place.

Parade time of starting will be at 12.30, Friday noon. The Parade will form opposite Calgary Power office and and after forming will go west to the Dairy office, then north past Imperial Lumber, turning west at the corner by McFarland Lumber they will go by the hotel to Pembina Drugstore, then south to Drayton Bakery, where they turn west again past the cemetery and along Supply Road west to the disbanding point at Stewart Motors." All entries are requested to be on hand at Calgary Power office by 11.30 a.m. on the morning of the parade. Anyone wishing to enter a float may call Gordon Bowman at 108, or Jim Glenask at 407. The Rodeo starting time is 2.30 p.m. Prizes for decorated bicycles is: 1st: $5.00, 2nd:$3.00, 3rd: $2.00. For Commercial and Industrial Floats 1st prize is $25.00,2nd. is $15.00 and 3rd is $10.00. A band and Majorettes will take part in the parade again this year. A new note has been added to the proceedings this year with a Rodeo Hostess who will head up the Parade and will greet visitors at the Rodeo grounds. Miss Sherry Scott will be on hand with her horse Dyna to act in this capacity. Miss Scott has recently been winning prizes for the best-dressed horse and rider. She is operating a ranch with a girl friend west of Edmonton at present.

For the dances Gaby Haas and his famous band have been engaged to play each evening.

WORK PARTIES FORMED TO POUR CEMENT FLOOR IN RINK.

At 6.00 a.m. on Saturday morning, July 11, work parties will meet in Drayton Valley Curling rink to start the pouring of the floor. Four transit-mix cement trucks will be used to bring the cement in to be poured. Forty men are requested as volunteers to assist in this community enterprize, a minimum of twenty men for each shift is required, with the second shift starting at 11.00 a.m. Power-wheel barrows will be usedwhich will lighten the work and speed up the pouring considerably. Anybody who can take part for either the 6.a.m or the 11.a.m. shift is asked to contact Pete Nebo, at 153 or 259, or Don McKenzie at 35 or 488.

HANK CHRISTIANSEN WINS RADIO.

Hank Christiansen, employed with Golind Oil and Gas Co., was the winner of the radio raffled by the Pony League. The draw was made Saturday, July 4th.

NEW POLICEMAN ADDED TO FORCE.

Alfred G. Chesterman, formerly of Killam, was recently hired by the Town of Drayton Valley as police officer to assist in policing the town. Constable Chesterman is married, with 4 children. He spent two years on the Killam police force. The new patrolman brings to three the number of the Drayton Valley Police force. Edson, a town about the size of Drayton Valley, has four men on their police force.

VIOLET GROVE SPORTS DAY DRAWS GOOD CROWD.

Violet Grove Community League may be commended for the very fine Sports Day they staged on July 4th. With Ball Tournaments, horse shoe matches and other contests they gave a chance for spectator sport. The children got special consideration with games, rides and races, adding particularly to the enjoyment of the younger set from toddler age on up to the purely young-in-heart was the midway set up by the Kirby Shows.

Starting about six o'clock the Pembina Boxing Association staged five bouts. In the first Marv. Winhon took Geroge Pakis on a T.K.O. in the first round. The second round saw Garry Mastre win on points decision over Orvin Combs in a three round scrap. The Winhon peewees, Lenny and Denny, put up a good exhibition fight for the third event. In the fourth event Al Corbett was matched age ainst Newt Masnor, and Al won the go in the first round. In Bout No. 5, Johnny Berg and Cec. Reeves battled it out, with Berg winning the decision over Reeves in the three-round fight. Referee for the card was Andy Anderssen

FOOD FOR THOUGHT-
BY: Demitz Boling

There are so many pleasant things to write about but one must take the bitter with the sweet and this week its the bitter. Some of you may already know about this but recently there has been a wave of vandalism that has moved into the Rotory Recreation Park. The dictionary defines vandalism as, "the willful destruction or defacement of things of beauty." Beauty is defined as, "that quality in a thing that gives pleasure to the senses or pleasurably exalts the mind or spirit." The Rotarians have worked hard, given of their time and money to give to the children of Drayton Valley a nice recreation park and yet there seems to be some among us who are willfully trying to destroy their efforts. In the past it has been a concentration on the equipment, the pulling over of the swings and dragging them around. Car tracks have been found so that means it is those who are old enough to be in an automobile. The latest infraction, and by far the most serious, is that after dark, certain persons have been putting broken bottles into the wading pool!!!!! Think about that for a minute or two! If the glass is not noticed or a piece of it is not found, a child's foot could be seriously injured, a tendon cut, an artery severed and death or permanent injury could be the result. WHOEVER you are, is that what you want to happen? If so, then you do not deserve any consideration when it is discovered who you are! The feeling, at this time, is that some of the damage, in part, has been done by teenagers and perhaps some of it done by a group just just coming into the teenage bracket. But why? Drayton Valley has worked very hard to have places for these young people to go and things for them to do and yet they show their appreciation by destroying the efforts of those who are trying to help them. I realize that you teenagers are apt to be blamed for a lot of things you do not do but if you are not responsible for any of this, then you can help us find the ones who are doing it! There is another mistaken idea when the word teenager is applied. Teenager seems to be an overall statement and includes anyone in their teens, good or bad, and that isn't quite fair. A large per scntage of our teenagers are average, normal, and enthusiastic young people with a desire to do the right thing. We seem to ignore that group in our effort to bend over backwards to appease the minority who are unruly and destructive. We shield and excuse them and in many ways make it too easy for them to get by with their antics. If they will not listen to reason and live in our community without causing a distrubance then I say its time we do something about it. Our law enforcement men should feel free to let it be known publicly who is responsible and to inflict the proper punishment when they are found. For too long its been overlooked that some of our minors are drinking and seem to have easy access to liquor. We turn our heads when ten and twelve year old youngsters walk down the streets smoking cigarettes and I, personally, have seen several of them. For you parents, who are trying so very hard to raise your children in a clean and decent atmosphere, let me say it is now time to band together and demand that this area be made the place you want it to be. The old saying, "there is honor among thieves," appeals to the young mind. They won't 'tell' or 'rat' even if they know who the sulprit is, and of course the popular phrase, "being chicken", is one that they don't want to be associated with. They are not mature enough to figure out that it often takes greater strength of character to "be chicken" than to be otherwise. They aren't that interested in strength of character, yet! So I'm making this appeal to all of you. To you teenagers, who would like a chance to clean up your own camp and to prove that you are the group of decent young people we believe you to be, I will suggest that you isolate those among you whom you feel do not represent the best of your group. Quit protecting them, that sort of person will sometime to let you take the rap for them. Let them know that you do not consider them either smart or clever and that you have plans for your own life that do not include being a useless, uninteresting smart aleo. And may I add this thought to you young folks. Do not always work so hard at having to be intertained every minute. If there isn't something exciting to do, each and every night, try going to bed early once in awhile! It will do you no harm and just might do you some good. To you parents, I would like to suggest that you observe your own children a little more closely, regardless of their ages. Do not be too sure that your Jack or Jill wouldn't do such a thing! Before you point your finger next door, be positive, without a single doubt, that your own next is clean. Know what your children are doing and be sure they are doing it; don't just sit around and guess. Its stays light quite late these summer evenings so if a child is out after dark it means he or she is out later than the curfew allows. This is also an appeal and a chance for the vandals to straighten up and fly right before serious action has to be taken and such action will be taken eventually or the wading pool and recreation facilities will have to be eliminated. If there is no appreciation or cooperation why should the town and service clubs attempt to build a regular size swimming pool? It is known that some older children, ten years old and up, have been going to the park during playtime and bulling the little ones and not allowing the small fry to enjoy the park that was made for them. Older children are welcome to go to the park and have fun too, but not at the expense of those who are too little to defend themselves. Is your child one of the offenders? And now a last message to whoever it is that thinks it is fun to destroy playground equipment and to throw broken bottles in the wading pool. I'll say, in your own language, "Don't be a birdbrain!" Go destroy something of your own, like your car, if its so much fun, and you can throw your broken bottles into your own bathtub and then crawl into it! Whats the matter with you, are you chicken or something?

The recipe for today is another summer dessert that can be prepared well in advance of the time you may want to use it. It is rich so a small slice is just right.

Pineapple Ice Box Cake

½ lb. Vanilla wafers crushed; 1 cupful sugar; ½ cupful of butter; 1 small can pineapple, diced; 1 cupful chopped walnuts.

Line a small loaf pan with waxed paper. Put a layer of the crushed wafers, then a layer of the other ingredients that have been creamed together, then another layer of wafer crumbs and so on until all is used, having top layer of crumbs. Pack down hard and let stand overnight in refrigerator. Turn out of pan, slice and serve with whipped cream.

"A guilty conscience is like a dirty wash cloth; it will not clean your face." anon.

GOLFING REPORT.

Jim Wilson, of Oilwell Supply, took Drayton Valley Golf course par on June 29th, with par 5 holes, birdie 2 and bougied 2. Congratulations, Jim.

TEENERS' VIEWPOINT
BY: "Bee"

What is wrong with the teen-ages of today???? No matter where you go you hear this refrain. I think that people are sort of overplaying this matter. Not to long ago a well known radio station took it upon themselves to phone a large number of homes to see if the parents knew where their children were. The result? There were very few kids who knew where their parents were.

Years ago parents would not dream of leaving their children at home unless of course they went to a funeral or some place else where you couldn't take the kids. Now-a-days they pawn the dear little things off on anyone who is sucker enough to take them. Then when the children grow up the parents wonder why they can't reach them and why they don't come to them with their troubles. Lets face it par ents, aren't you to blame as much as your off spring. When dad comes home from the office after a hard day he wants to relax. But junior has different ideas. He wants dad to come and help him with his model airplane. How many of you parents could show a little patience and help him, or would you say, "Some other time, dear, Daddy is too tired tonight." To pe ople this may be a matter of life and death but to pop it is just another little irritation that sometimes makes life almost unbearable.

My grandmother who was well into her 80's when I was born, always said that the reason people has so much trouble with their children was because they condemned them too much and hardly ever praised them. If a small child remembers to pick up half of his toys, we don't tell him how thoughtful it was for him to do it, we yell at him and tell him to get busy and pick the rest up. If a child tries his best

We always seem to expect more.

Then, too, is the idea that it is all right to fight in front of the children. How it must confuse and hurt a small child to see the two main and best loved people in his life turn against one another and say nasty, mean things. Oh, maybe they will make up and forget all about each other fault(until the next time) but does that little child forget too.

It seems as though the trend of today is to think it is smart to be able to get away with something. Oh no, its not just the teen-ages but also their parents. If pop lies himself out of a speeding ticket, he trots home and brags at the supper table "how he sure out smarted that nosy cop. No wonder kids grow up thinking policemen, teachers and every other person they should look up to are just a bunch of empty headed fools. Look how a certain Alberta official was caught stealing cement and all he could say for himself was, "After all, I'm only human." These types of people are holding responsible positions when they shouldn't even be trusted to clean out a hog barn. Are these ones the adults us teen-agers are to look up to?

Now you parents, the next time you start ranting and raving about "this younger Generation" first look at the older generation and see if they have or have had very much to be proud of.

REPORT FROM PARLIAMENT HILL.

The new crop insurance shheme has been brought down. This is a masterplan scheme which will come in effect when each province brings in its own plan.

Under this legislation the Federal government will pay 50% of the administrative costs and 20% of the premium chargedto the farmer. 25% of the farmers in any area must come into the scheme. Those who do not have crop insurance will not be eligible for P.F.A.A. and will not have to pay the P.F.A.A. levy.

In effect this bill allows the framework and financial assistance to the Provincial governments to enable them to set up their own schemes. The Province of Manitoba has already stated they will introduce a crop insurance scheme at this session of the Provincial Legislature. In Alberta the Provincial government already has the enabling legislation and could go ahead at an early date.

THREE HURT IN HIGHWAY ACCIDENT.

Three men were early Tuesday morning, at about 12.15, when two cars collided on Highway 27, about 4 miles north of Drayton Valley. Excessive dust conditions are felt to have been contributing factors in the crash.

Injured were two workers on Cascade Drilling rig, just north of town who were just coming off shift, Walter Tkachuk, with broken ribs, and Bob Shearrington, who suffered a broken wrist and head lacerations. The occupant of the other car, which was northbound at the time of the collision was Allen Burrows, an architect,working on building plans in Drayton Valley. All three were removed to Drayton Valley Hospital.
